Is the next recession ahead...

OR IS IT ALREADY HERE?

Fears that a recession is coming soon have increased significantly in recent months. In fact, it may have already arrived. We're experiencing the highest rate of inflation in 40 years. Consumer optimism is at its lowest point (barely 50%) since this survey began in 1978 and is now even lower than during the worst of the pandemic.

Remember that recessions present opportunities as well as challenges. We'd like to share what we think marketers should be doing about it:

- » Strengthen your member relationships
- » Make sure your website is easy to use and current
- » Sharpen your credit unions brand proposition
- » Increase your marketing efforts to your members

Use multi-channel marketing campaigns to communicate similar messages across multiple channels. Utilizing multiple channels gives you greater exposure and provides a wide variety of opportunities to retain and attract new members.

Let LKCS assist you in utilizing your budget for maximum return.

See how easy it is to spread your message across multiple channels with LKCS! We can assist you with:

- » Web Marketing
- » Print
- » Statement Marketing
- » In-Branch Advertising
- » Logoed Products

Multi-channel marketing improves your marketing results
